

Sunday 28th December 2025: The Holy Family

After listening to today's Gospel, Flight into Egypt (Matt. 2: 13-15, 19), consider this reflection.

The flight into Egypt is a splendid gospel for the feast of the Holy Family. It tells of a time of the acutest danger, when Mary and Joseph must have been at their wits' end in caring for their precious child, and so were most bound together as an endangered family, and at their most reliant on God in a situation humanly hopeless.

The powerful, resourceful and pitiless Herod was a formidable threat; he would have no scruples about killing a few male children in the little hill-town of Bethlehem. There is also a further dimension: on many occasions, and especially here, Matthew depicts Jesus as a Second Moses: from the beginning Herod threatens Jesus' life just as Pharaoh had threatened Moses' survival as a baby. Just as Moses went into exile after killing the Egyptian overseer, so Jesus also goes into exile, to return when the threat is past. Of both it is said, 'Those who wanted to kill you/the child are dead' (cf. Exodus 4:19). Later Jesus will be seen as the Second Moses when he stays forty days and nights fasting in the desert, and when he delivers the new Law at the Sermon on the Mount and at the Transfiguration. What can you do to bind your family more closely together in Christ?

Sunday 21st December 2025:

Fourth Sunday of Advent

After listening to today's Gospel,

Emmanuel (Matthew 1: 18-24), consider this reflection.

Matthew begins his Gospel about the birth of Jesus with a long and elaborately formal genealogy of Joseph. But Jesus is the son of Mary, not of Joseph! The whole point of this story is that Joseph is not the genealogical father of Jesus, but adopts Jesus into his line, the line of King David. At first Joseph is hesitant to do so, presumably thinking that he is unworthy to acknowledge the child as his own, and unworthy to bond with Mary who is with child by the Holy Spirit.

But the angel insists that only Joseph can do this job

('Do not be afraid,' he says). As soon as the child is born, he is given the name Jesus, and is given it by Joseph. It is the father's prerogative to name a son, and by so doing Joseph takes the child as his own.

We hear little more of Joseph, but what a joy it must have been to have Jesus as a son! What a relationship there must have been!

What responsibility too! When Jesus calls God his 'Father', he is using something of the concept of 'father' which must have been formed in his mind by his adoptive father, Joseph, the perfect ideal of the loving parent. Why is it important that Jesus should be adopted into David's line? What sort of father would Joseph have been, and what can we learn from him?
